

FACULTY OF MEDICINE UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE
DRESS CODE AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Dear students,

Since during the COVID-19 pandemic most of the teaching at the faculty was performed either entirely online or in a hybrid form, for many of you previous academic year (2022/23.) was the first held completely on campus. In that regard, for the benefit of the patients, the faculty staff and your own, let us remind you of some guidelines regarding the Dress Code and Code of Conduct at the faculty premises.

IN THE FACULTY BUILDINGS (AS WELL AS AT LECTURES, EXERCISES, EXAMS, etc.)
IT IS NOT ALLOWED TO WEAR:

- Shorts and tracksuit bottoms
- Mini skirts and mini dresses
- Tanktops, and/or tops with plunging necklines in the front or back, as well as those that expose the stomach
- Dirty, torn and transparent clothes
- Flip-flops, slippers and footwear that exposes a large part of the feet and toes
- Political symbols or any sort of political insignia

WHEN REQUIRED TO WEAR WHITE/LAB COATS MAKE SURE THEY ARE CLEAN
AND IRONED

GUIDELINES FOR CONDUCT:

- At all times, refer to all teaching and administrative staff as well as your colleagues and patients with respect.
- When in large groups, do not be too loud and respect the working environment of all employed as well as the patients at the institutes and clinics.
- Respect the working hours of the employed at the Students' Department and refer to them accordingly.
- Food is not allowed in the classrooms.
- Both indoors and on campus put waste such as food packaging and bottles into the bins. Respect the environment.
