

FAQ ABOUT RESEARCH PAPERS

Frequently Asked Questions

About Research papers

- Who is eligible to get involved in students' research program at Faculty of Medicine, University of Belgrade?

Any regular student of Faculty of Medicine, University of Belgrade, who is attending third or higher semester (i.e. \geq 2nd year) and has passed final exam of the particular subject with grade 8 or higher. 6th year students can write their research papers on Departments whose subjects/courses are held during XII semester.

- Can I write my research paper at Departments which subjects do not have numerical grades?

No, except for Biophysics (if Medical Physiology or Radiology is passed, with grade 8 or higher) and Chemistry (if Medical Biochemistry is passed, with grade 8 or higher).

- How many research papers can each student write during one academic year?

TWO:

A) One as an author and one as a co-author

B) Two as a co-author

- How many authors can each paper have?

One author and two co-authors at most.

- Can I write and present my research paper in English?

Yes.

- How many research paper can have an author?

Maximum three. (one as author and two as co-author).

- Does for the co-author apply the same rules as for the author?

Yes.

- When should the research topics be submitted?
In a term defined by CNIRS and announced on the school website. Usually during November.
- How does someone apply its research?
By sending the Mentor's paper (see download material for R.P.) by e-mail:
 - To: csnirsbg@gmail.com
 - Cc: Your's mentor email address
- How should the research paper look like?
It should be an original research paper. In the evaluation are not take in account the papers which present clinical cases, paper's reviews and meta-analysis.
- Does the submitted research paper can be previously published?
No. The papercannott be previously be published or accepted for publishing in a Journal, neither can be part of a previously defended diploma or doctor thesis, academic or specialist work.
- Does a research topic which was submitted one Year can be re-submitted the next Year if the work was not concluded and evaluated?
Yes, in the case it was not ended by submission time and published.
- In which language can the Research Paper be written?
In Serbian or English
- Are there any instructions on how to write the Research Paper?
Yes. You can find the instructions in the "Download material for Research Paper".
- When should the Research Paper be submitted for Evaluation?
In the terms defined by CSNIRS and announced on the website, usually in February.
- How should I submit my Research Paper for evaluation?
They are sent as pdf attachment to the email address, csnirsbg@gmail.com
- When should the signed report from both mentor and author be sent?
At the same time when you submitted your research paper

